

As a supplier of Latimer Fire Protection Limited, you will have provided certain company details which fall under the new GDPR legislation. This law replaces the Data Protection Act 1998.

Here at Latimer Fire Protection Limited,, we take your privacy seriously, and will only use your personal information to administer your account.

What do we do with this information?

Your company information is stored securely, both electronically, and through paper filing systems. As a company, we can demonstrate that we have procedures in place to ensure your data is not shared with third parties and that it is only used for legitimate business purposes.

What about payment information?

As a supplier you may have provided us with your company details. These are kept within our online banking facility and accounts package, which are protected through a multi-layer of password security.

Latimer Fire Protection Limited,, will not share your company details with third parties. They are required for the sole use of a business relationship between our respective companies.

Should you wish for your data to be deleted, please contact us in writing either by email info@latimerfp.co.uk or by letter to our trading address.